Who We Are

Nanny Maids was founded in 2010, as a result of a tragic incident experienced by the founder, due to a negligent nanny. At Nanny maids, we follow a strict FICA policy for screening all of our candidates. We prioritise the safety of our clients ahead of profits. Nanny Maids SA has earned a reputation for being the agency of choice for many business, professional, celebrated and political individuals in Gauteng, Johannesburg. We have assisted, amongst some of our customers, presidential wives, actors, celebrities, former beauty queens, political leaders, business and corporate executives. Our customers often return for replacement and additional care-givers. Most of our customers honour us with written references. At Nanny Maids SA, we respect each client's need for privacy. We treat all our customers the same, rendering a consistent quality of service to all, this is what has helped us stay on top of our game.

Becoming a Nanny Maids Franchisee, means your acceptance of our code and ethos. A good reputation takes years to build, thus, it is vitally important for us, to attract people who share our vision and hold the highest standards of excellence and loyalty to the brand.

The services we offer at Nanny Maids SA are:- domestic worker recruitment, care-worker recruitment, cleaning services. The scope can be extended to training & cooking services.
